

The Agboola Award for Creative Writing in Schools

To: The Office of Jon Cruddas

From: Aaron Agboola

Date: 07/03/2017

Re: The Agboola Award for Creative Writing in Schools

Summary Details:

Entry Criteria:

Genre – Poetry (less than 500 words) or Short Story (less than 2000 words)

Age Groups – 11 to 14 and 15 -17

Prize - £50 per Age Group (funds to be provided by me, any additional donations will be split between each Age Group)

Entry Period - 01/05/2017 to 01/07/2017

Prize Giving – 15/09/2017 Location: At the current school of the winners

Entry Details:

School Responsibilities – All entries are to be sent by email (via a current teacher), to theaafcw@outlook.com within the entry period detailed above.

Student Responsibilities – There will never be a theme, as creativity is key and should not be limited.

Judge Responsibilities – Each piece will be judged based on 3 key aspects: Creativity, use of language, and uniqueness.

Other Details:

Frequency - This will be an annual award, held within the same period of the Academic year each year.

Judges – Aaron Agboola will always be assisted by a Guest Judge each year

Prize – The prize is subject to increase, as donations are given.

The Agboola Award for Creative Writing in Schools

Entry Criteria: To Enter Please Speak to your English Teacher

Genre – Poetry (less than 500 words) or Short Story (less than 2000 words)

Age Groups – 11 to 14 and 15 -17

Prize - £50 per Age Group (funds to be provided by me, any additional donations will be split between each Age Group)

Entry Period - 01/05/2017 to 01/07/2017

Prize Giving – 15/09/2017 Location: At the current school of the winners